

LAWYER MENTORING PROGRAMS

A number of state and local bars have adopted mentoring programs to address the need for new lawyers to understand the practice of our profession. Some of these programs are voluntary and some are mandatory. For some good examples, please review the following:

Georgia

Please see the State Bar of Georgia's Mandatory Transition into Law Practice Program at http://www.gabar.org/member\_essentials/transition\_into\_law\_practice\_program/.

Ohio

Please see the Supreme Court of Ohio Lawyer to Lawyer Mentoring Program by the Supreme Court of Ohio Voluntary Lawyer to Lawyer Mentoring Program at <http://www.supremecourt.ohio.gov/AttySvcs/mentoring/default.asp>.

South Carolina

Please see the South Carolina Supreme Court's Mandatory Lawyer Mentoring Pilot Program at <http://www.sccourts.org/bar/PilotMentoringProgram.htm>.

Utah

Please see Utah State Bar Mandatory New Lawyer Training Program at <http://www.utahbar.org/nltp>.

Dade County (FL) Bar Association

Please see Dade County Voluntary Mentoring Program at <http://www.dcbammentor.com>.

Dallas (TX) Bar Association

Please see Dallas Bar's Voluntary Transition to Law Program at <http://www.dallasbar.org/tlpp>.

For a different approach, check out the State Bar of Texas Program, Ten Minute Mentor at <http://www.tenminutementor.com/>