

PROFESSIONALISM

A number of bars have instituted professionalism programs and commissions. Some excellent examples are the following:

1. Florida Bar Henry Latimer Center for Professionalism located at <http://www.floridabar.org/tfb/TFBProfess.nsf>;
2. The Illinois Supreme Court Commission on Professionalism found at <http://www.ilscpc.org/>;
3. The State Bar of New Mexico's Commission on Professionalism found at <http://www.nmbar.org/Attorneys/commissiononprofessionalism.html>; and
4. The Texas Center for Legal Ethics and Professionalism found at <http://www.texethics.org>.

Particularly interesting is the State Bar of Georgia's Chief Justice's Commission on Professionalism, and especially the Judicial District Professionalism Program found thereunder which deals with local professionalism programs. This information is located at http://www.gabar.org/chief_justices_commission_on_professionalism/.

Additional resources can be located at the ABA's Center for Professional Responsibility located at <http://www.abanet.org/cpr/professionalism/profcommissions.html> and the ABA's "A Guide to Professionalism Commissions" found at <http://www.abanet.org/cpr/professionalism/guide.html>.